Newman Grade School Provides Community with a Spring Music Concert

Wednesday afternoon, April 16th, Ms Amy Neimerg conducted a music program with her Newman Grade School students. A packed gymnasium heard mutiple songs sung by each of the grades. With the assistance of the classroom teachers each class assembled into a concert format to perform for parents, grandparents and friends. Everyone in attendance were pleased with the performances.

The Pre-Kindergarten class performs for the large audience.

Here the Kindergarten classes sing very well for the concert on Wednesday.

FROM THE NEWMAN COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

 Rev. Joy Starwalt Newman United Methodist ChurchDo not be afraid; I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. He is not here; for he has been raised, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has been raised from the dead, and indeed he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him.' Matthew 28:5-7
The story is told of a young minister, just out of seminary who was asked to do a brief committal service for an old man, Mr. Smith, who had died. There were no family members left, so it would be just the minister and the funeral director at the cemetery. A time was arranged for the service and somehow the minister got his directions messed up and got lost on the way to the service. He was an hour late! Not seeing the funeral director anywhere, he assumed he had proceeded with the burial without him. But this minister did notice some freshly dug dirt and saw a couple of workers sitting under a nearby tree, with their shovels lying on the ground. He walked over to the dirt piles and said a prayer, and then returned to his car. Just then, under the tree, one of the workers commented, "You think we ought to tell him that Mr. Smith isn't there, and that he just prayed for a septic tank?"

Did you ever happen to notice that outside of the four Gospels, the rest of the New Testament does not ever mention the empty tomb? We hear many times over about the resurrection, but not the empty tomb. The reason for that: an empty tomb doesn't prove anything. All an empty tomb means is that there is no body in it.

Many of us have just come from glorious Easter services and we are getting back into our routines, somewhat weary from the celebrating, yet often wondering if any of that made a difference at all. So now what? We can tell one another that because of Easter, heaven's door is open to those who believe. Eternal life is now a gift offered to all. That truly is good news. I don't want to take that lightly at all, but what does Easter say about our time until then?
Last Sunday the angel told us that Jesus isn't in the empty tomb. We don't have to go to the cemetery and believe in a grave. Jesus is not in the graveyard; he is not here.
So where will we find him? The angel said we'd find him in Galilee. Why Galilee? Do you even know where it is? Galilee is where Nazareth is, the hometown of Jesus. Why would Jesus return there? Maybe he wanted to go back to his roots, back home. There's nothing really special about the place, it's ordinary Galilee. Galilee is where you live your life, your ordinary days. It's Newman, it's Champaign, it's the tractor cab, the school room, the office, the kitchen. And if you want to see Jesus, the risen One, you have to go there. We find Jesus in our ordinary days as we stay on the path he has told us, doing what we know to do in our everyday lives.
But it's a choice we have to make. We have to look for him. And how will we see him? In trusting his promises and doing what he asks of us. Joanna Adams is a pastor and talks about in one of her previous churches she was to oversee the night shelter for the homeless. It was

The calls would come in with questions: How many a night? Who staffs it? Who pays for it? But one caller spoke with some obvious hostility. He said, "Sounds like so much 'bleeding heart' social work to me. What I want to know is, where is Jesus in all this?"

Joanna was speechless for a few moments and then answered, "I suppose you will just have to come down to the shelter some night and see for yourself. He goes before you to Galilee. He is there. He is in your daily life. When you watch for him, you will find him.

The squad then headed to Bement on Wednesday staying in league play against the Cerro Gordo/Bement Broncos and this contest started strong as Shiloh scored six runs in the first three innings to take a 6-4 lead. Unfortunately, that was the only times that they scored as CGB outscored Shiloh 3-0 in the final four innings to hold on for a 7-6 win. Both Jessica Hunt and Lauren Moses each hit home runs for the Raiders while Hunt went the distance on the mound striking out 9 Bronco hitters in the loss. Stephanie Shook finished with a hit and 2 RBI for CGB in the win.
There was no rest for the Raiders as they traveled to Georgetown on Thursday to face off against the Georgetown-Ridge Farm/Chrisman Buffaloes and it was another close battle to the end with the Raiders mounting a late $7^{\text {th }}$ inning comeback, but the hosts Buffs didn't fold under the pressure holding on for a 6-4 win. Jessica Hunt went 4 for 4 with a triple and a run scored while Tori Stierwalt went 2 for 4 with a double and Lauren Moses also went 2 for 4 with a double, a stolen base and an RBI. Both Katie Fitzpatrick and Desiree Brown both went 2 for 3 with Brown tallying a

To celebrate National Library Week, April 13-19, Newman Regional Library held a photography contest for children 13 and under. Photos taken by the children were to represent the Summer Reading theme, "Paws to Read," and be images of a pet or stuffed animal with a book.
Nine photos were entered in the contest by four different people. Judging was based on the quality of the photo, the way it matched the theme, and on its creativity. Christi McClain, Brocton, was the judge. McClain, Art Teacher at St. Mary's School in Paris, has a fine arts degree from the University of Indianapolis. She enjoys sharing her passion for the Arts and inspiring children to be creative and excited about art. McClain commended the children for submitting their photos, "Art is the ability to interpret life around us, it gives a visual voice to how we see the world and how

Stephanie Deem went 1 for 4 with a run scored. Jade Emery tallied an RBI despite going 0 for 3 . Hunt once again went the distance on the mound striking out five. Brittany Hay went 2 for 2 for G-RF/C while scoring three runs and driving in two in the win. It was back to LOVC play on Friday as the Raiders hosted the Villa Grove/ Heritage Blue Devils in Hume and the Blue and Gold faced a dilemma as they had to play with only eight players as four players were unavailable due to other obligations. The Raiders played on giving their very best, but VGH ended up getting the best of Shiloh winning the contest by five inning mercy rule by a score of $25-1$. Tori Stierwalt took the mound for her first ever varsity start and went three innings taking the loss while Desiree Brown pitched two innings in relief. Jade Emery went 1 for 1 with a walk and scoring the only run of the contest while the trio of Desiree Brown, Maddie Flesner, and Alex Gill went 1 for 2 each. The Raiders (3-6 overall, 1-3 LOVC) will have started a busy week with two straight home games on Monday and Tuesday in Hume against the

we want others to see it too. I hope they strive to have fun with art and continue to discover their creative potential." Pablo Picasso captured the sentiment best when he said, "Every child is an artist. The problem is how to remain an artist once he grows up."
The winning photos will be used in promotional materials for the Summer Reading Program for the library and all the photos will be posted on a bulletin board in the children's section. Librarian, Renee Henry, reports "We are so grateful for the four people who submitted photos and we are excited to use them in our materials for the summer reading program." The photos did an excellent job of capturing our theme.
First place goes to Benjamin Sherer's Wish I Could Go There. Ben, 7, is the son of Julie Sherer of rural Newman. The photo is good composition, using the rule of thirds. One third water, two thirds land. McClain noted, "I liked it because it is in its natural habitat. I think it took a lot of thought." She explains, the rule of thirds means that you divide your art in thirds, both horizontally and vertically. Focal points are placed where the lines intersect for a more interesting composition. These ideas were first written down by John Thomas Smith from his book Remarks on Rural Scenery.

Second place will be awarded to Allowyn Nichols for Bear and Chair Photo. Allowyn, 6, is the daughter of Amanda Nichols of rural Newman. The colorful bear on the green couch looks like they altered the color and light to make it sort of abstract. "I think it is unforgettable because of the bright colors. She creates something different than what the eye sees," enthuses McClain.

Zoey Shreeves', Rachet Hello Kitty Reading Frozen, was the third place winner. "This photo has good contrast and draws the eye," according to McClain. The dark value of the dog in contrast to the white value of the Hello Kitty stuffed animal balances the photo The bridge, being the book, connects the two subjects. The left side is light and the right side dark directing your eye in the photo. Zoey, 5, is the daughter of Pam Shreeves, Newman.

Honorable mention goes to Layke and Jaye Sanstrom. Together, mother and two year old daughter recreated the cover of "Is Your Momma a Llama?" book. The pink shirt and the pink halter make sort of a pattern if you include the beams on top. It is sort of a figure eight and that is good composition.

April is National STD Awareness Month 2014

Recently, Douglas County was recognized as one of the top ten healthiest counties in the state. Staying healthy also means to be aware of certain diseases and the behaviors that cause or contribute to those diseases.

The Douglas County Health Department encourages residents to learn about sexually transmitted diseases/infections (STDs/STIs) during the observance of National STD Awareness Month. Public awareness and knowledge are extremely low around the country and STDs/STIs remain at epidemic levels. National STD Awareness Month is a health observance sponsored by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) to let people know of the growing crisis of STDs/STIs in America. The American Social Health Association (ASHA) provides estimates on the number of STDs/STIs occurring in the U.S.:

- One in two Americans will contract an STD/STI at some point in their lifetimes - An estimated 65 million Americans are living with a viral STD/STI
- Each year, there are almost 3 million new cases of Chlamydia
- One in two sexually active persons will contract an STD/STI by age 25
- One in four teens contract an STD/ STI each year
- Less than half of adults ages 18 to 44 have ever been tested for an STD/STI other than HIV

- Over 6 million Americans acquire the virus (HPV) that causes genital warts each year
- An estimated one in five Americans (50 million) have genital herpes; and, about 1.6 million new infections occur each year
- 20 million - new STDs occur each year
- $16 billion - the cost of treating STDs contracted in just one year
- $1 / 2$ of all new sexually transmitted infections each year are among those aged 15-24
What Are STDs/STIs?
Sexually transmitted diseases (STD), also referred to as sexually transmitted infections (STI), are infections that are passed between humans by means of human sexual behavior, including vaginal intercourse, oral sex, and anal sex. While in the past, these illnesses have mostly been referred to as STDs or VD, in recent years the term sexually transmitted infections (STIs) has been preferred, as it has a broader range of meaning; a person may be infected, and may potentially infect others, without having a disease. Some STIs can also be transmitted through the use of IV drug needles after its use by an infected person, as well as through childbirth or breastfeeding.

All-Star Hoops Game Giving Moses

 Familiarity with Future Home Court by Tim HendershotIt has been a whirlwind ride for Lauren Moses during her last four years of high school basketball. From getting to go to the IHSA State Finals her freshmen year to her signing her letter of intent to play junior college basketball her senior year, her career has been one of the best that the Shiloh Raiders girls' basketball program has had. Last Saturday, Moses got to compete one more time at the high school level on the court that she will call home for the next two years. Moses was a member of the Black Team for the 2014 Parkland College/News-Gazette All-Star Game at Parkland Gymnasium that featured some of the best players in the News-Gazette circulation area. The venue was also perfect as Moses signed her letter of intent two weeks ago to play for the Parkland College Cobras and got a chance to play on the same court she will play on for the Green and Gold the next two years.
As for the game itself between the Black throughout the evening with the Gold Team pulling away for a 79-74 win over the Black Team. Moses ended the game scoring two points and pulling down five rebounds on the evening for the Black Team which was outrebounded by the Gold Team 57-39 for the game. Moses concluded her high school career this season averaging 14.3 and 10.7 rebounds per game, both statistics being amongst the area leaders all season. That effort gave her News-Gazette All-Area Second Team honors and LOVC All-Conference First Team selection at the end of the season. The Shiloh Raiders finished the season at 24-4 overall and 6-0 in the LOVC tying for the regular season title with the Arcola Purple Riders and winning their third straight LOVC Tournament title under Head Coach Dave Tingley. Basketball Central congratulates Lauren for her four year career and the rest of the Blue and Gold for a fine 2013-2014 season.

Next weekend, April $26^{\text {th }}$, is the 3rd Annual Street Stock Shootout. \$1000 to win, $\$ 100$ to start and $\$ 100$ to the fast qualifier. Gates open at 4. Qualifying starts at 6:30 with the races beginning at 7:00. Come out and watch some of the fastest street stocks in Illinois. Article/photo submitted by Kim Middleton

Josh Griffith, winner of the Street Stock class and daughter.

Here are some key points:

- The most reliable way to avoid an STI is to abstain from sex or to be in a long-term, one partner relationship with an uninfected person.
- Latex condoms, when used consistently and correctly, are highly effective in preventing transmission of HIV, the virus that causes AIDS. In addition, correct and consistent condom use of male and/or female latex condoms can reduce the risk of other STDs/STIs.
- There are vaccines available to prevent hepatitis A and hepatitis B infections. There is no vaccine to prevent hepatitis C .
- There are two vaccines for ages 9-26 (female and male) that protect against infection by certain strains of some of the main viruses associated with cervical cancer.
- Some STD/STI screening tests (gonorrhea and chlamydia) are simple and only require a urine specimen.
Douglas County Health Department is now able to offer STD testing at a reduced cost to you. Please call and ask for Susan or Jane with your questions or to schedule an appointment.
So if you have read this article, you are now aware of some of the sexually transmitted infections and the problems associated with them. You also have been given some tips on how to prevent those diseases. Please practice safe sex and help keep Douglas County healthy.

Titan Baseball Trying to Find Answers Continuing Roller Coaster Season

This 2014 baseball season has been one of adaptation and growth for the TriCounty/Shiloh Titans. Before the season started, both Tri-County and Shiloh were to have separate teams. After Shiloh only had nine players attend the pre-season meeting, it was then decided that the teams would co-op for the upcoming season. Through the first month of the season, it has been a roller coaster of emotions for the Purple and Orange. Head Coach Joe Morrisey and his squad looked to get back on track last week with six games on the schedule and looking to start the second half of the year with a bang. Once it was all set and done, the Titans still had its share of ups and downs going 1-3 on the week and still trying to find that piece of the puzzle to keep the momentum going on the upward trend. The week was to have started off with two straight homes games against the Okaw Valley Timberwolves on Monday in Hume and the Casey-Westfield Warriors on Tuesday in Kansas. As typical of Central Illinois weather, steady rains all day on Monday plus unusually cold temperatures on Tuesday made conditions unplayable and forced the cancellation of both games. As of press time, no make-up dates had been announced.
It was then on to Cerro Gordo on Wednesday for the first real LOVC test of the season for TCS facing off against the Cerro Gordo/Bement Broncos. The host Broncos came out firing on all cylinders and Cole Blickensderfer never gave the Titans any room to mount a comeback going 4 strong innings and CGB pulled away for an 11-1 win in six innings. Blickensderfer struck out 6 TCS hitters and allowed only five hits while Connor Gross pitched two solid innings of relief in the win. Blickensderfer also had a home run and 2 RBI at the plate while Mason Neisslie went 3 for 4 with a double. Cyrus Furgeson took the loss going $31 / 3$ innings giving up 7 hits and 7 runs ( 3 of them earned) while striking out 3 and not giving up a walk. Brandon Getche threw two innings of relief giving up 7 hits and 4 runs (all earned) while giving up 3 walks and striking out 3 . Getche went 2 for 3 with a double and an RBI at the plate while the duo of Brandon Stone and Luke Armstrong went 1 for 2 each with Armstrong adding 2 stolen bases in the loss.

After a day off, it was back to Hume on Friday as they hosted the Villa Grove/

Heritage Hawks. This was the first game that pitted players from both Heritage and Shiloh High Schools against each other since the breakup of the East Central Panthers co-op last season. The game was filled with fireworks early as the visiting Hawks jumped out to a 7-3 lead with three of the runs coming off of a home run by Chance Lemmon in the top of the $3^{\text {rd }}$ inning. The Titans then mounted a huge comeback scoring seven runs total in the $5^{\text {th }}$ and $6^{\text {th }}$ innings with TCS putting up a five spot in the bottom of the $5^{\text {th }}$ inning to take an 8-7 lead. Clint Foster then put on a show on the mound going three innings of relief to help the Titans hold on for a 10-7 comeback win. Foster ended the day giving up only one hit while giving up three walks and tossing 6 strikeouts. Foster had a productive day at the plate as well going 2 for 2 with 3 RBI. Luke Armstrong pitched 4 innings giving up 9 hits and 7 runs getting a no decision while going 2 for 3 with his key hit coming in the bottom of the $6^{\text {th }}$ inning with a 2 run triple sealing the win. Brandon Getche went 1 for 4 with 3 RBI as well. Alec Bean was 2 for 3 with a double for VGH while Chance Lemmon finished the day going 2 for 3 with that 3 run home run. Jake Reifsteck was 2 for 4 for the Hawks in the loss.

The Purple and Orange express then headed to Georgetown on Saturday morning for a doubleheader against the Georgetown-Ridge Farm/Chrisman Buffaloes. Game one was a tightly contest affair with the key factor being the Titans defense making some costly mistakes to the tune of five errors in the game. Despite those errors, the Titans stayed close, but the host Buffs held on to take the opener by a score of 7-5. Luke Armstrong finished with 3 hits in the opener while Brandon Getche continued his hot hitting adding two more hits. Campbell Foster took the loss on the mound. Tyler Lunger finished with 2 RBI for G-RF/C while Dylan Cosat took the win on the mound. Game two saw the Buffs offense stay alive to the tune of 13 runs and the Titans offense was held in check as G-RF/C swept the day taking the second game 13-1. Rylee Goodwin led the Buffaloes attack with 3 RBI in the win.

Missy Tinglev was looking for one of the other ladies to step up in her absence. The Raiders ended up finishing the meet in $6^{\text {th }}$ place with 5 points while the Effingham Flaming Hearts took the meet with 185 points. The Neoga Indians finished in $2^{\text {nd }}$ place with 108 while the Marshall Lions took $3^{\text {rd }}$ place with 103. The Georgetown-Ridge Farm/Chrisman Buffaloes finished in $4^{\text {th }}$ place with 66 and the host Paris Tigers captured $5^{\text {th }}$ place with 52. Madison Kerans had a solid meet taking $4^{\text {th }}$ place in the 200 meter run with a time of 30.59 and finished in $6^{\mathrm{th}}$ place in the 100 meter dash in a time of 14.78 . Vanessa Zimmerman had a solid first meet of the season taking $5^{\text {th }}$ place in both the 110 high hurdles and the 300 intermediate hurdles in times of 20.56 and 1:03 respectively. With only six available members, these results are showing that each and every member is doing what it takes to fill in the lost numbers that Andi Luth provided.
The Raiders will have had their boys' team already back in action on Monday for a meet in Toledo hosted by the Cumberland Pirates. The teams will be back in action this Friday afternoon in Tuscola for the 2014 Tuscola Open hosted by the Tuscola Warriors. This meet brings in the top teams and runner from across the East Central Illinois area and will be the toughest test to date for the Blue and Gold this season. Start time for the event will be at $4: 00 \mathrm{pm}$. The Speedy Sprint will have the highlights of both meets for you next week as the road to Charleston draws closer.

y Tim Hendershot

The Titans (3-10 overall, 3-1 LOVC) will have started the week with two key LOVC games on Monday at home in Kansas against the Martinsville Blue Streaks and on the road in Arthur on Wednesday against the A-L/A-H Knights. The team will be at home at Ken Coffey's Field of Dreams in Kansas to face off against the Windsor/Stewardson-Strasburg Blue Devils. It will be Senior Night for those at Kansas High School as they salute the players and parents for their contributions to the program the last four years. First pitch is set for $4: 30 \mathrm{pm}$. Diamond Roundup will have the highlights (weather permitting) of all three games for you next week as the second half of the season begins.

Raider Women Take Minor Step Back Dropping Three Straight

by Tim Hendershot

This 2014 softball season has been one of continued growth for the Shiloh/ Tri-County Raiders seeing the ladies of the Blue and Gold gain confidence each and every game that they have played. The Raiders looked to continue that growth last week with four big games that would gauge how the rest of this season would go. After the week had ended, the Blue and Gold saw some opportunities stay out of their reach along with some unforeseen circumstances going $0-3$, but still showing the area that their progress will not be deterred and their spirit is as strong as ever.
The week was to have started off on Monday in Hume with an LOVC contest against the Okaw Valley Timberwolves. Mother Nature had other ideas as steady rains hit the area forcing the game to be cancelled. As of press time, no make-up date had been announced.

Steelers Fan for Life

By Chad Dillon

Currently residing in Newman, Illinois, Ryan Michael Addis has had a positive start to his life. When Ryan graduates, he is planning to go to Parkland College. He would enjoy becoming a pipe welder in Colorado. Ultimately, his dream job is to be an underwater pipe welder. Ryan also likes playing Magic the Gathering and video games during his free time, as well as watching football. Ryan also enjoys reading. One of his favorite books is League of Their Own by Sarah Gilbert because something good is made out of a bad situation.

Ryan Michael Addis
At school, Ryan's favorite teachers are Mr. Carver and Mrs. Belobraydic because they are friendly and are flexible. "I will miss Ryan's intelligence,' Mr. Carver says. In social studies classes, Ryan is very productive and excels at review games. "He always gets his homework done and is fun in the classroom," Mrs. Belobraydic says. Former Shiloh teacher Señor Walker was another helpful teacher and provided a place for him to work on all subjects or any type of school work. In addition, Ryan enjoyed all of the fun times in Señor's classroom. Overall, Ryan likes Shiloh because everyone is treated equally
On a more personal level, Ryan looks up to his older brother Lyle Gordon. Ryan is the son of Amy Burns and Anthony Addis. As for his other interests, Ryan enjoys football because of its physical nature. Ryan's favorite football team is the Pittsburg Steelers. Ryan's favorite football player is Franco Harris from the Steelers because "of his immaculate reception.'
A senior without very many fears, Ryan says he is nervous about graduation because of having to walk down the aisle with so many people staring at him. If Ryan could go anywhere in the world, he would enjoy visiting Norway, because it is an interesting foreign country. If he had the chance to win one million dollars, he would open a welding shop. With the choice of having any car in the world, Ryan would like to have a 1969 Cadillac Maui blue convertible.
"Don't run your mouths at upperclassmen" Ryan advises to the upcoming freshmen. Ryan is often known by his classmates and teachers for being a nice, giving person who is always trying his best and making new friends. This Steelers fan is on the bright path to success.

Baking with Miss Board

By Shayla Sue Vance

"And tough she be but little, she is fierce." This Shakespearean quote describes Toni Marie Board, a senior at Shiloh High School. The hallways are bright and happy with Toni around. In between classes, students and teachers enjoy Toni's fun-loving, giggly personality. Her advice for underclassmen is to "avoid drama and try to have no regrets." A difficult aspect about high school for Toni would be her senior year due to difficult classes along with deciding upon a college.

Toni is the talented daughter of David Board and Monica Board. She has two sisters, Darci and Margo Winkler, and one brother, Cole Board. "Cole inspires me because he is smart and my best friend," she says. She believes it is fun and helpful to be the youngest in her family because she can learn from her siblings' mistakes. She says that her family thinks she is most talented with baking. One of her favorite treats to bake is cheesecake.

Lavender is Toni's favorite color. Her favorite teacher, Mrs. Belobraydic, says that she sees Toni as "rainbow colors because she is funny and easy to talk to." This senior's dream car is a 1969 dark purple Nova with a black interior. Mr. Findley, another of Toni's favorite teachers, says, "Toni is a very pleasant person to have in class and has been a hard summer worker for me."
As for Toni's future plans, she plans to attend Lake Land College to study cosmetology. "In ten years from now, I see myself 28 with maybe two little babies and being a licensed cosmetologist," Toni says. Someday she wishes to meet Mark Wahlberg who is an actor in one of her favorite movies, Ted. Toni would like to visit Italy and

Ireland because she thinks they are "pretty and interesting."
As for employment, Toni is currently working at the Newman Rehabilitation and Health Care Center. Throughout high school, Toni has been in FCCLA, and she has also been a cheerleader. Winterfest was one of her most memorable moments of high school. "My class always wins the games and spirit challenges," Toni explains.
Upon graduation, Toni says that she will miss three specific girls from a group of her many friends: Kaylee Campbell, Darian Craddock, and Kaila Redmon. "We will miss her high messy hair buns and her humor," juniors Tommy Lance and Kaylee Campbell stated. Though sad to leave her friends, Toni is ready to "bake" her way to a new perspective on life.

"Ready to Go!"

Confident, outgoing, blunt. These are three excellent words that describe senior Kaila Sonseeahray Redmon. Her unique middle name means "morning sun." She is a resident of Newman and daughter of Arthur Lewis and Samantha Redmon-Lewis. Kaila also has a 15 year old brother, Tazay, as well as two dogs and a cat. Her bright and fun personality is best shown in her favorite quote, "Keep a smile" and by her favorite color, which is yellow.
Kaila is one of the most hardworking and determined seniors of the class of 2014. She works at the Newman Rehabilitation and Health Care Center as a dietary aide. Previous employment has included babysitting, detasseling, and working at McDonalds and Bass. Four people whom she describes as "always being there for her" are her mother, grandmother, and her best friends, Courtney St. Clair and Toni Board. Kaila's mom is also one of her role models and supports her with all of her decisions.
As for sports and extracurricular activities, Kaila has been a class officer for all four years and also has played softball. Her favorite high school memory is when the softball team went to the regional game and beat the number one seed team. Former Shiloh

Kaila Sonseeahray Redmon
softball coach Randi Cookus is also one of Kaila's role models because she always pushed the team to win and is a "total babe."
Art is Kaila's favorite subject. She is very creative and enjoys doing fun and random crafts. Two of her art projects have been in the Edgar County Student Art Show at the Bicentennial Art Center and Museum in Paris. During her sophomore year, her clay sculpture of a Converse shoe was entered and for her

Farm Equipment on  the Roadways

Planting season is upon us.
Pesotum, IL- Illinois State Police District 10 officials are advising motorists of driving safety tips during planting season while sharing the road with farm equipment. District 10 covers Champaign, Coles, Douglas, Edgar, Macon, Moultrie, Piatt, Shelby, and Vermilion Counties.
Farmers will be hitting the roads with their planting equipment, headed for the fields.
The typical planting season for corm in Illinois is April $14^{\text {th }}$ to June $5^{\text {th }}$ and for soybeans it is May $2^{\text {nd }}$ to June $24^{\text {th }}$. Crashes involving farm equipment are not uncommon in a state where the majority of over-all land is farmland. Champaign and Vermilion Counties are two of the seven counties statewide with the highest farm equipment crashes. District 10 Captain Jamal Simington said, "Motorists and operators of farm equipment and other special motorized apparatuses must share the roadway. Awareness and patience by everyone traveling on rural routes and in rural communities are imperative and will contribute to highway safety."
Illinois State Police District 10 officials would like to remind motorists to use caution, slow down and share the road responsibly. Studies show that left-turn, rear-end and passing collisions are the most common types of accidents involving motorists and farm machinery. IDOT and the Illinois Department of Agriculture suggest the following tips to keep motorists safe when encountering farm vehicles:

- Pay attention and do not drive distracted. $\bullet$ Slowdownwhen encountering slow moving vehicles. Pass with extreme caution. $\cdot$ Allow extra room when following farm equipment. - Be patient. A farmer cannot always move over to let motorists pass. - If you cannot see the driver, the driver cannot see you. Farm machinery operators may not be able to see you because the large equipment or a load can block part of their rear view.
